

Arawa: Bay of Plenty iwi

Whakapapa resources

---

Binney, J. Nga Morehu: The survivors. 1986.

Life history of eight women of the Bay of Plenty, East Coast, and Poverty Bay; and the Ringatu faith.

Boyd, J. Daughters of the land. Nga uri wahine a Hineahuone. 1993.

A glimpse into the lives of rural women in the Rotorua area, 1893-1993. Biographies and photographs.

Cooper, N. Ngati Mahanga: A pakeha family search for their Maori ancestry 1993.

Descendants of Chief Pourewa of Ngati Mahanga, Te Arawa (Bay of Plenty). Includes whakapapa tables.

Gardiner, T. M. He ohaaki na nga matua tupuna ko Okahukura: The story of a Ngati Tuwharetoa wharepuni. 1993.

Tuwharetoa and Ngatoroingi whakapapa tables; many named photographs.

Grace, J. Tuwharetoa: The history of the Māori people of the Taupo district. 1959.

Kanawa, Te H. Whareangaanga Te Kanawa: he whakamarumaruru mo te whanau. 1992.

The Te Kanawa family reunion at the Tokikapu marae at Waitomo resulted in this whakapapa booklet that binds the whanau (descendants) of Whare-angaanga, Koropaehi and Parerau. Includes many photographs. Te Kuiti in the King Country. Ngati Tuwharetoa.

"Ngati Tuwharetoa and Te Arawa tribal connections with children of Porourangi."

Audio Tape 0233.24-.27

Papakura, M. The old-time Māori. 2011.

With an introduction by (Makereti) Ngahua Te Awekotuku. Includes whakapapa of Arawa waka, and much useful comment on social organisation.

Stafford, D. M. Te Arawa A history of the Arawa People. 1927-2010.

A history of the iwi and its people and places.

Stafford, D. M. Landmarks of Te Arawa. 2v. 1927-2010.

Written "to enable Māori descendants of Te Arawa and its subtribes to identify virtually every aspect of their history." Contains whakapapa tables, marae and subtribe areas including Ngati Rangiwehewehi, Ngati Whakaue.

Steedman, J. A. W. He toto: Te ahu matua a nga tupuna. 1996.

New interpretation of Māori history which includes 200 whakapapa of Waikato, Coromandel, Whakatane and Tauranga which descend to families of Tauranga and surrounding districts.

Steedman, J. A. W. Nga ohaaki o nga whanau o Tauranga moana. 1974.

The known whakapapa of families of Tauranga and surrounding Bay of Plenty areas; Arawa and others. Includes many whakapapa tables. See also Tauranga Moana: Māori obituaries.

Tamatea Pokai Whenua. MSS & Archives 94/3. Special Collections.

Whakapapa relating to Tamatea Pokai Whenua.

Thompson, A. Glimpses of Kutarere. 1989.

A village on the Bay of Plenty coast. Many photographs of the whanau from that area; includes the school roll in pictures.

Tregear, E. Māori-Polynesian comparative dictionary. 2005.
Te Arawa whakapapa p.667.

Waka huiā

July 10, 1988: Mokoia - Hiko Hohepa and Hare Wikingi reveal the story of Tutanekai and Hinemoa as one of deep spiritual, cultural and genealogical significance.

Whakapapa "Uenuku mai Rarotonga, Rotoiti"
Archive of Māori & Pacific Music 0104.13